

C
C46CW
1921

Christian College

A Book of Views
of
Campus, Buildings, Equipment and Recreations of Christian College

Now entering upon its Seventy-first Year of Successful Service in the Education of Girls and Young Women

Part Two

CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

Vol. 69      May, 1921      No. 4

Published by

CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

Columbia, Mo.

Entered at the Columbia Postoffice as Second-Class Matter

To Alma Mater

Tune: "How Can I Leave Thee"

Dearest old C. C.,
We drink a health to thee!
Each pledging e'er to be Loyal and true.
Oh, Alma Mater, dear!
Thy name we all revere;
May we ne'er cease to cheer
    And pledge anew.

Dear Christian, hear us sing
While we our tribute bring,
Once more the echoes ring
    In praise of thee.
We love thine ivied walls,
Thy campus and thy halls;
Honor to us e'er calls
    From old C. C.

Proud as the girls of old
Are we, of blue and gold;
Great be the stories told
    Of old C. C.
Thy voice shall be our guide,
Thy fame shall be our pride,
Out in the great world wide,
    Far, far from thee.

The J. K. Rogers Memorial Entrance

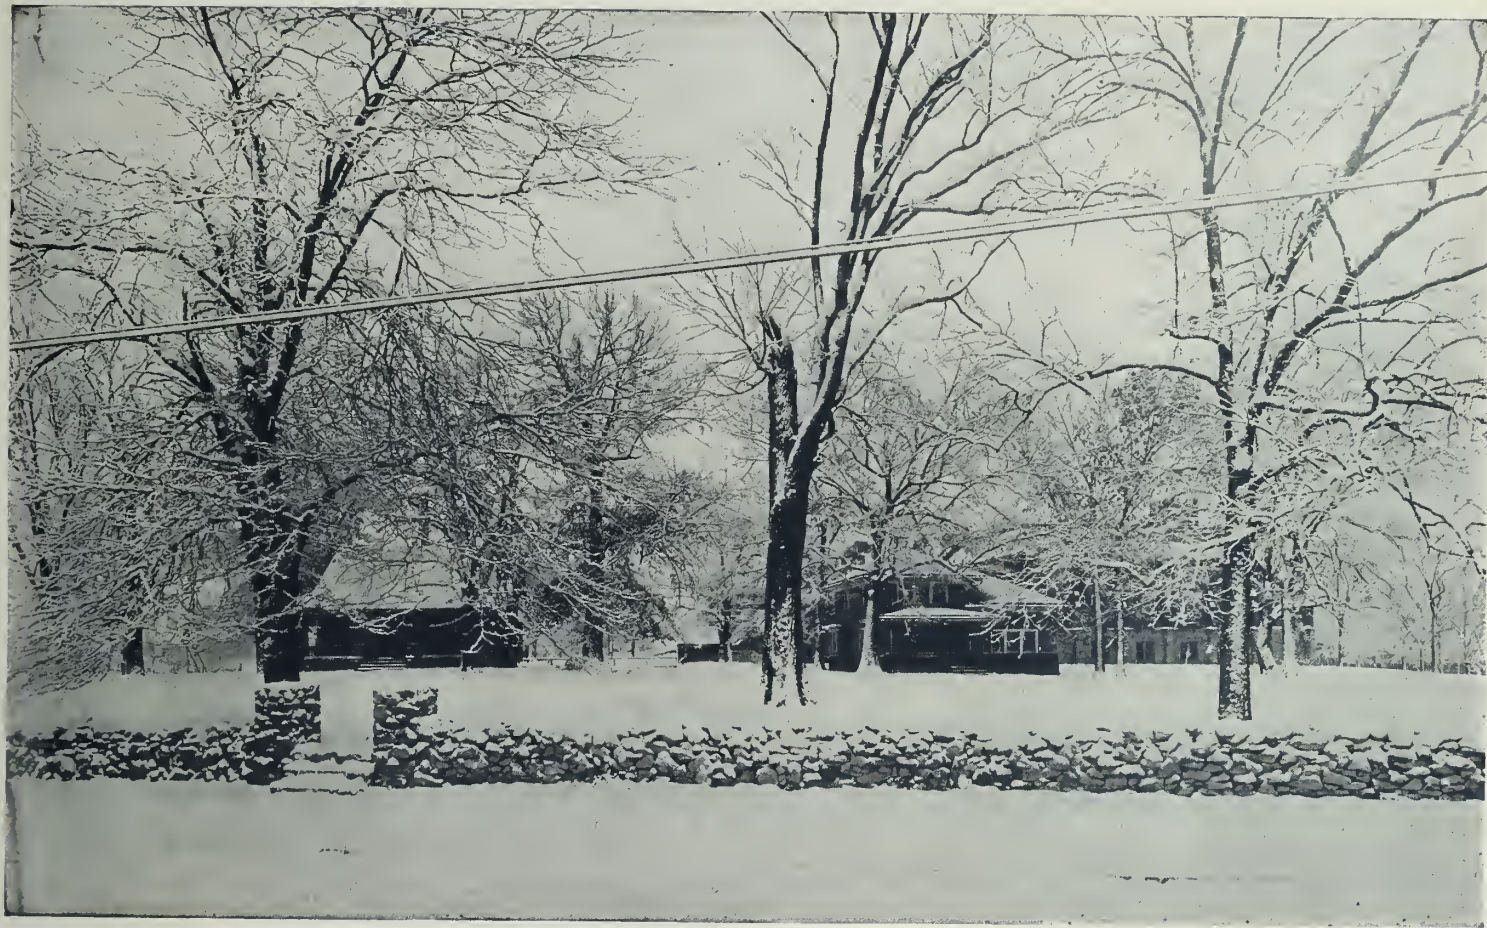

The South Campus

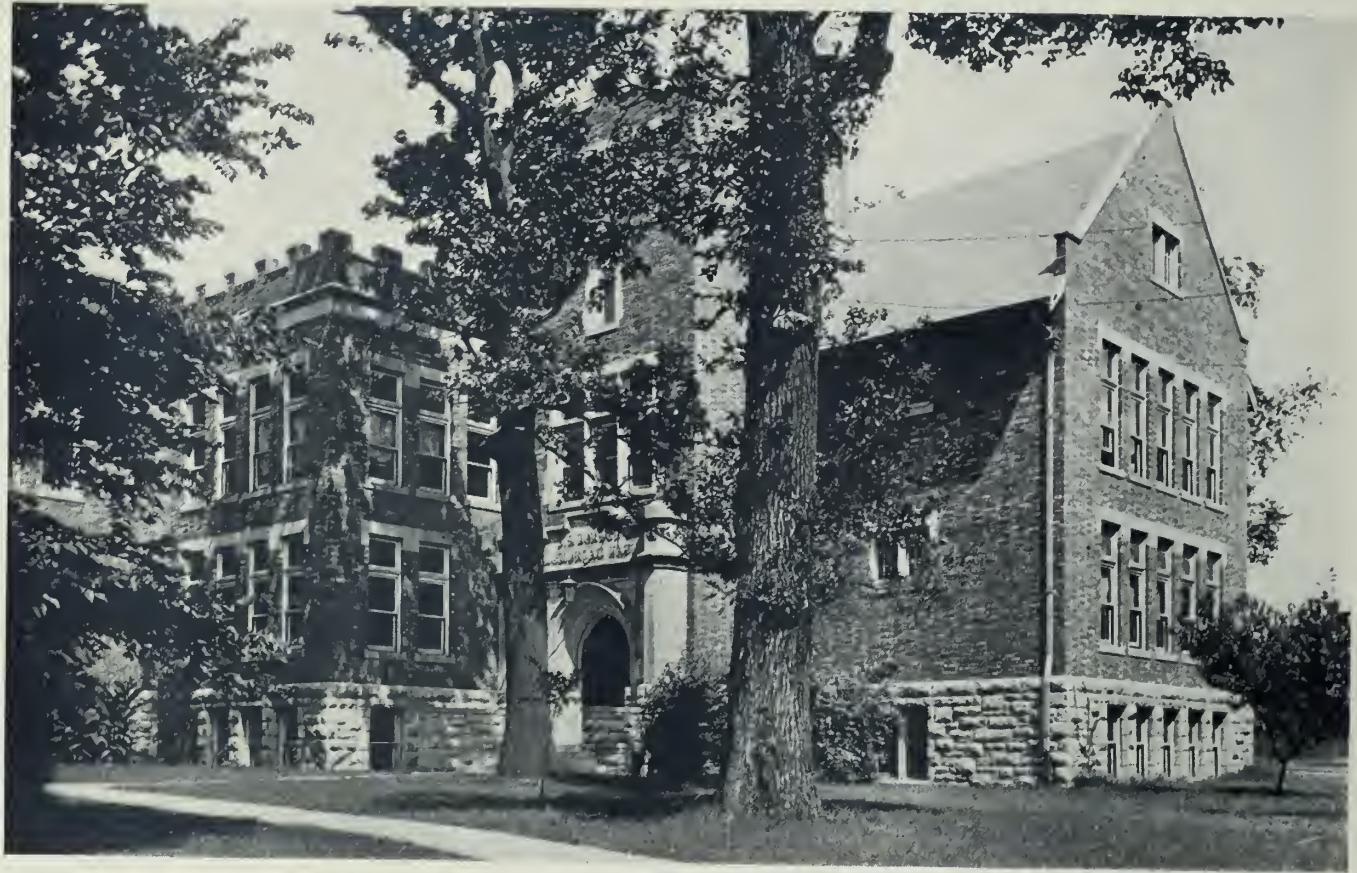

West Campus in Winter

Dorsey Memorial Hall

The Auditorium

Entrance to Academic Hall

The Loggia — Interior View

Reception Hall

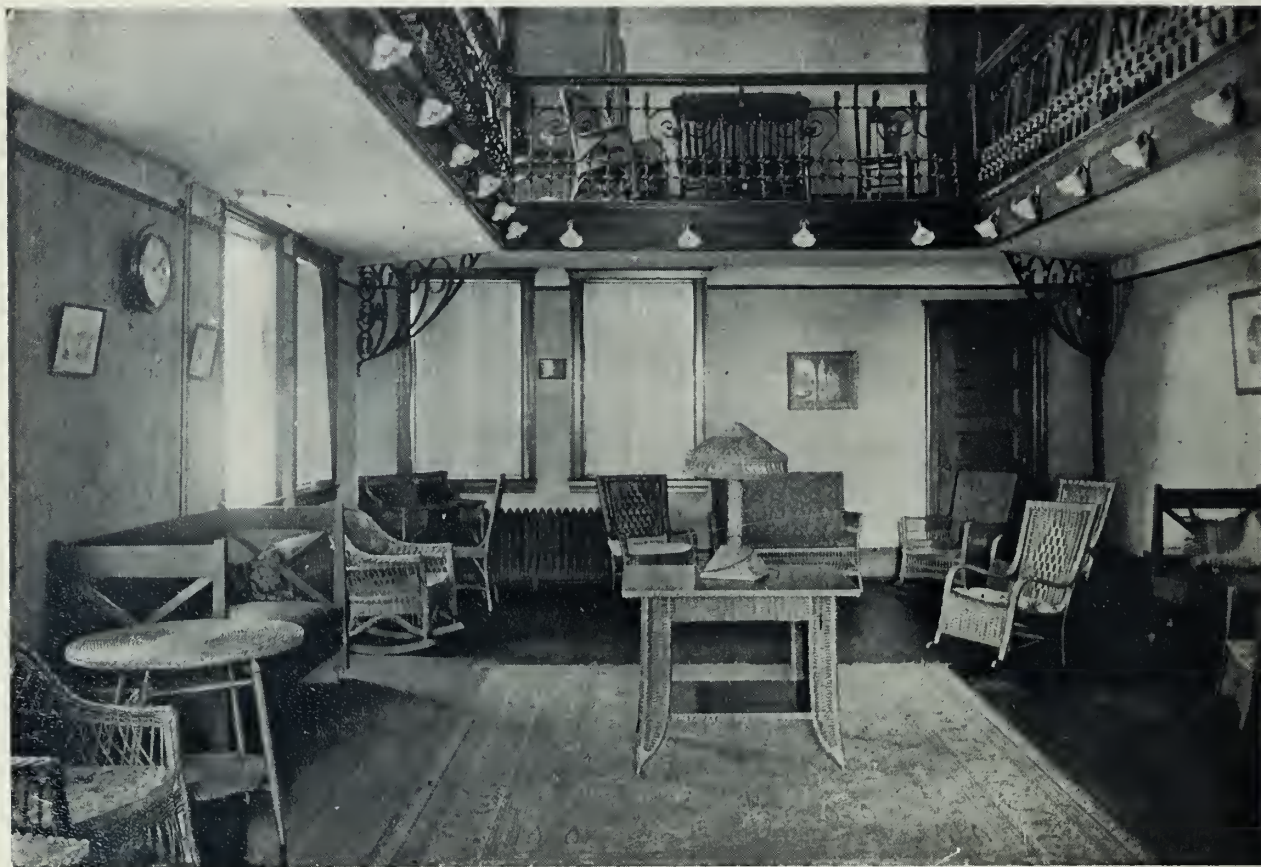

One of the Drawing Rooms

The Club Room

The College Library

The Auditorium

College Orchestra

The College Natatorium

A View of the New $25,000 Natatorium

The reputation of Christian College girls as entertainers is well recognized by the townspeople of Columbia, and they are often called upon to furnish clever stunts and impromptu songs for various occasions. Above is the group who sang at the Pershing-Crowder Banquet at the Boone Tavern.

Horseback Club

ST.
'21

A. A. Graduates in Cap and Gown

Class Day — Ivy Oration

Studio at Art Exhibit

Work of the Art Students

The Chapel

The College Dining Hall

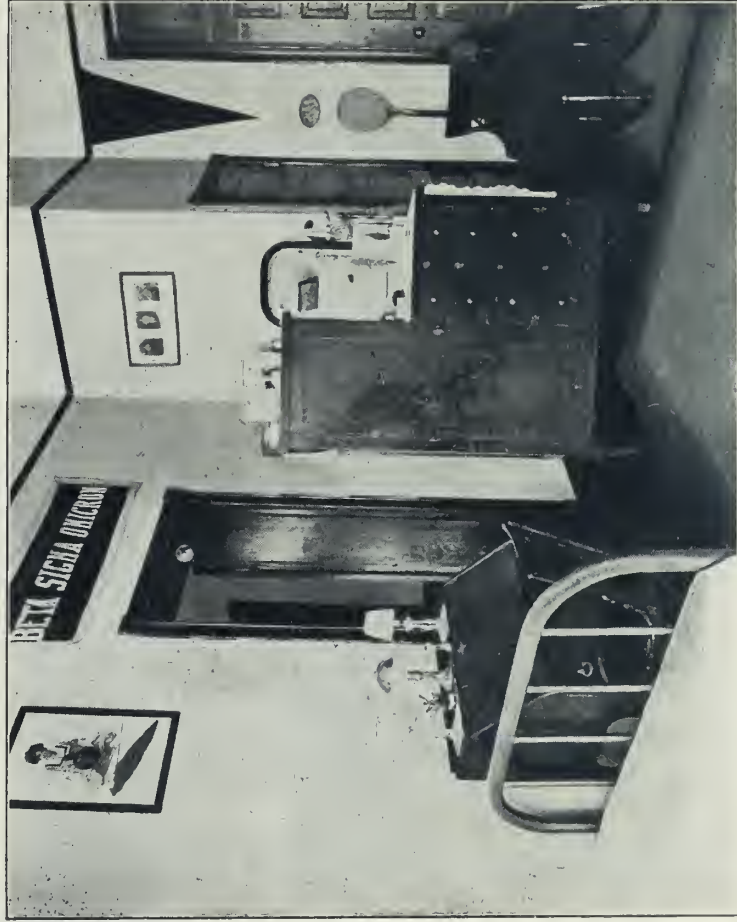

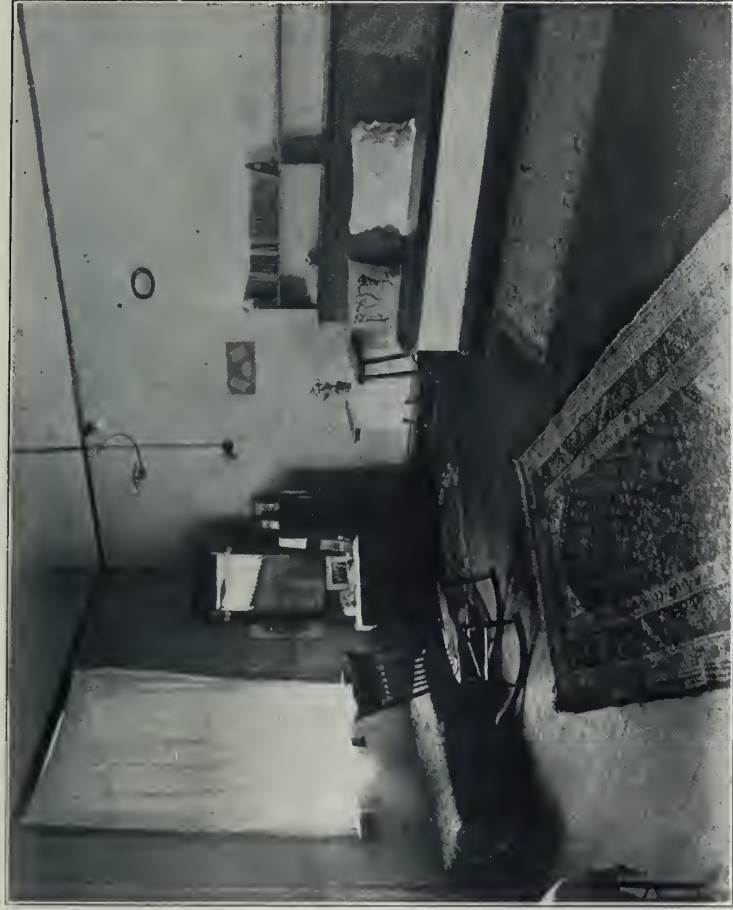

The Dean's Suite

A Student's Room

Students' Rooms

Scenes from the Pilgrim Pageant

Pilgrims Going to Church

Priscilla and John Alden

Colonial Bride and Groom

Autumn — From the Pageant of the Seasons

A Treaty with the Indians — from the Pilgrim Pageant

Annex to Dining Hall

A Colonial Group

A Class in Cooking

Y. W. Girls in Campaign Parade.

DEAN ROSE L. LISENBY .

PRESIDENT EDGAR D. LEE

New Dormitory and Home Economics Building

This building will be completed August first, 1921. It occupies nearly an acre of ground, has a floor space of 36,150 square feet, and is of absolutely fireproof construction. In addition to providing residence facilities for one hundred and ten more students, it will contain quarters for the School of Home Economics. With rooms in single or double arrangement, the latter connecting with a private bath, with two sun rooms and a kitchenette on each floor, with a reception room 60 by 25 feet, this building is the "last word" in a college residence hall.

3 0112 105735895